Riding the Waves of Insurance: A Practitioner's Perspective

(didactic seminar)

Date and Time:

January 15, 12:30 – 14:00

Speakers:

Andrea Veller (Iccrea banca)

Diego Benetello (KPMG)

Description:

This didactic seminar is aimed at Master's level students and provides an in-depth practitioner's perspective on the insurance sector. The speakers will discuss key concepts, industry dynamics, and current challenges in insurance, bridging theoretical frameworks with real-world professional experience. The seminar is designed to complement academic training by offering applied insights into decision-making, risk management, and the evolving role of insurance in modern economies.
